

Joseph
HANNA

Goldberg Segalla LLP
Partner

J.D., State University of New York at Buffalo Law School, M.S.A., Canisius College, M.P.A., Syracuse University's Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, B.A., State University of New York at Buffalo

Joseph Hanna is a commercial litigator and legal adviser nationally recognized for his work in media and entertainment law, as well as for being a leading voice for diversity in the legal and business communities. Joe is the founder and chair of Goldberg Segalla's Sports and Entertainment Practice Group, chair of its Retail and Hospitality Practice Group, editor of the Sports and Entertainment Law Insider blog, and chair of the firm's Diversity Task Force. Joe is widely recognized for his extensive work as an innovator, mentor, author, editor, and speaker on diversity and inclusion in the legal world. He has held diversity-related leadership positions at national organizations like DRI as well as the ABA, where he served for several years as chair of the Minority Trial Lawyer Committee and editor-in-chief of Minority Trial Lawyer. He has received accolades that include the Minority Corporate Counsel Association George B. Vashon Innovator Award, the New York State Bar Association Diversity Trailblazer Award, and the University at Buffalo George W. Thorn Award. In 2014 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) selected Joe for their Fellows program; he now chairs the New York chapter for the LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program. He is also a mentor with New York Legal Education Opportunity (NY LEO), an organization designed to ensure a diverse legal community by promoting academic success in law school for individuals historically underrepresented in the legal profession, and administered through the New York State Judicial Institute. In addition to his legal practice, Joe is the founder and president of Bunkers in Baghdad, a charity that collects and ships new and used golf balls, clubs, and other equipment to active duty troops in over 65 countries and to veterans recuperating at home.

Juliet
HUANG

Chapman and Cutler LLP
Partner
Public and Institutional Banking & Finance

University of Chicago Law School, J.D., 2005; Northwestern University, B.A., 1998

Juliet Huang is a partner in the Public and Institutional Banking & Finance Group and National Public and Health & Education Finance Department of Chapman and Cutler LLP. Juliet represents financial institutions in a broad range of public finance transactions, including direct lending, credit-enhancement, mini-leasing, public offerings, portfolio sale transactions, syndications, secondary market tax-exempt securitizations and municipal distress workouts. Juliet has considerable experience with sustainable energy and energy efficiency projects using lease-purchase structures with state and local governments (and qualified 501(c)(3) entities) and also has experience serving as bond counsel and underwriter's counsel. Juliet is a frequent speaker on public finance topics and serves on the Board of Directors of the Association for Governmental Leasing and Finance. Juliet also serves as Chapman's Diversity Co-Partner, managing firmwide diversity and inclusion initiatives.

Karim A.
ALI

Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP
Partner
Business Transactions

J.D., The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, M.B.A., The Ohio State University Fisher College of Business, B.A., Talladega College

Karim is an experienced corporate transactional attorney with extensive experience drafting and negotiating real estate purchase agreements, commercial leases, supply agreements, consulting agreements. In addition, Karim counsels clients in connection with a range of business transactions including the purchase and sale of real estate, private placements, mergers and acquisitions, emerging and privately held companies, manufacturing facilities and electronic financial service providers.

Karim previously served as a real estate attorney at L Brands, Inc., where he negotiated a variety of real estate agreements for Victoria's Secret, Bath & Body Works, Express and The Limited, including various high profile shopping center and mixed-use developments throughout the United States. Before pursuing a legal career, Karim was a community development officer helping low-to-moderate-income communities obtain banking services, suitable lending products and critical lending-based education.

Kendric
COBB

Morton Salt, Inc.
Managing Counsel - Compliance, Labor & Employment
Employment

J.D., University of Illinois College of Law, B.A., University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Kendric Cobb serves as Senior Counsel responsible for Compliance, Labor and Employment at Morton Salt Inc. in Chicago, Illinois. Prior to Morton Salt, he served at Caterpillar Inc. in Peoria, Illinois where he active in the company's award winning Pro Bono Program and represented pro bono clients in a variety of civil litigation matters ranging from criminal records to family law.

Kendric served in the Litigation, Labor and Employment Section of Caterpillar's Legal Services Division, managing a wide range of employment, product, commercial, insurance coverage, and mass tort litigation while providing advice and counsel on all areas of employment law in the U.S. and Canada.

Prior to his career at Caterpillar, Kendrick was an Associate at three law firms in Chicago: Winston & Strawn, LLP, Butler Rubin, LLP, and Reed Smith, LLP.

Kenneth P.
WILLIAMS

Segal McCambridge Singer & Mahoney, Ltd.
Shareholder
Insurance Coverage & Bad Faith, Insurance Coverage, Premises Liability, Negligence, and Personal Injury Litigation.

J.D., Wayne State University, 1998, B.A., University of Michigan, 1992

Mr. Williams focuses his practice on representing insurers and providing coverage advice for both commercial and personal lines carriers. His additional areas of expertise focus on insurance coverage and claim analysis for insurance carriers and private clients. Mr. Williams is recognized as a Michigan Leading Lawyer and as a Lawyer of Distinction for 2019. Mr. Williams' professional affiliations include the American Bar Association (ABA), Defense Research Institute (DRI) and the Christian Legal Aid of Southeast Michigan (CLASM). Mr. Williams is also a participant, speaker and writer for Segal McCambridge's Technology & Cyber Risk Practice Group as well as chair of the firm's Diversity & Inclusion Committee. Outside of work, Mr. Williams is an avid car and movie buff, and spends his time with weight training and practicing yoga.